

DRI Foundation—Women in Business Continuity Management Mentee Application

Thank you for applying to the DRI Foundation Women in Business Continuity Management to be paired with a mentor. A mentor's willingness to share their knowledge, experience and insights will be invaluable in helping you plan your career or address issues that you may face.

The application on the next page will help us match you with a suitable mentor. It is important that you are aware of the expectations that we have for a mentee and what a mentee should expect from her mentor:

As a mentee, I will:

- Be open to new experiences
- Explore possibilities
- Learn from others' experiences
- Gain confidence
- Accept feedback and constructive criticism
- Become more informed
- Enhance my network
- Help my mentor grow
- Respect my mentor's time
- Share my mentor/mentee experiences with others, especially outside the program
- Take responsibility for my individual growth
- Set goals and evaluate them regularly
- Develop greater self-awareness
- Commit time to the program
- Develop leadership skills
- Not be afraid to fail
- Think positively
- Have fun

As a mentee, I expect my mentor to:

- Be a good listener
- Offer constructive feedback
- Be non-judgmental
- Be patient
- Be trustworthy
- Offer well-considered advice
- Celebrate both our differences and similarities
- Help me develop my strengths
- Share his/her skills and insights
- Make time for me, be flexible in scheduling
- Introduce me to new experiences
- Be compassionate and passionate
- Introduce me to others who can help me
- Help me with expand my network
- Allow me to fail so I can grow
- Allow me to ask questions
- Be a guide
- Help me to analyze my mistakes
- Help me to develop a plan to grow
- Have fun

By submitting this application, you will agree to abide by the above and in addition hold confidential the information you receive from your mentor that she states is confidential regarding DRI International, the DRI Foundation and the Women in Business Continuity Management Program.
